Description :

PDF-9bb67 | "Community-Based Participatory Research (CBPR) has become the preferred model for conducting research in communities. Most scientists who conduct such research now recognize that working in partnership with the community is preferable, and more ethical, than conducting research on a community√ñ. As Surgeon General of the United States, I direct a number of programs aimed at encouraging American... Community-Based Participatory Health Research, Second Edition: Issues, Methods, and Translation to Practice
